

The Bugillagers

Back at Last!

Issue 0023

A Danger Aware™ Production.

03/26

Ah! They are back and with quite
a load of sticks.

Now we can get further with the rocket much faster than I thought.

I am so glad that
you two are back
and look at all the sticks you found!

Pulling this wagon
was very hard,
so Zoyz and I are going to take a quick rest.

Then we will start
getting the sticks
off the wagon.

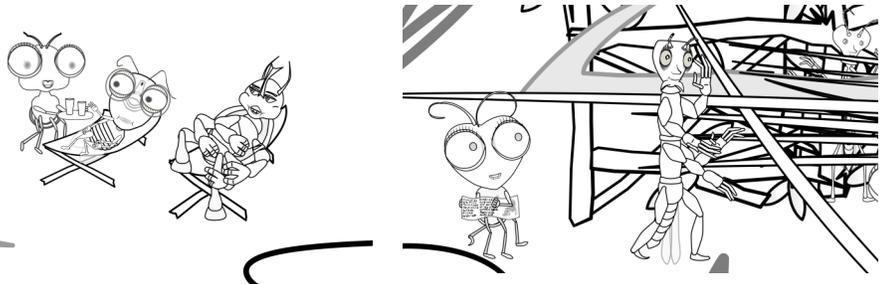

Don't worry about
that I will get the others to do that.

You two get
some rest.
Did you hurt your arm?

Yes! I was using a stick, and it broke
and poked my arm.

Asperick fixed
it for me!

ZZZZZZZ...
